

Society, Work & Development Institute
'the making and unmaking of social order'

In partnership with
 Friedrich Ebert Stiftung

2015 BREAKFAST

Resistance!

Launching three new Working Papers

New forms of resistance are emerging among previously unorganised sectors of South African society – casual workers, rural villagers, farmworkers. Repertoires include novel forms of organisation and disruption, violence and the contestation of customary law. SWOP is launching three new Working Papers on these topics in the first semester of 2015.

Venue:

Senate Room,
 2nd Floor,
 Senate House,
 Braamfontein East
 Campus, Wits

TIME:

Starting later than usual, please refer to presentations.

RSVP:

Abnavien King
 Abnavien.King@wits.ac.za
 Tel: 011 717 4460

For catering purposes!

27
 FEB

David Dickinson (Sociology, Wits)
Time: 08h00 - 09h30

Title: Fighting Their Own Battles: The Mabarete and the End of Labour Broking in the South African Post Office

13
 MAR

Sonwabile Mnwana (SWOP)
Time: 08h30 - 10h00

Title: 'No chief ever bought a piece of land!' Struggles over property, community and mining in the Bakgatla-ba-Kgafela Traditional Authority Area, North West Province

24
 APR

Jesse Wilderman (Global Labour University, Wits)
Time: 08h00 - 09h30

Title: Farmworkers rising in the Western Cape: organisation and action'

All the sessions will start promptly in our VENUE: Senate Room, 2nd Floor, Senate House with a 20-25 minute presentation from the speakers followed by discussion, and will end promptly as shown above.

Breakfast will be served.